Instead, open doors that lead me on the road to Your plan for my growth and life. Help me to listen better and trust.
2 Let us thank God for His goodness. Let us praise Him with our words and song declaring His glory. Let us move beyond praise and worship him mightily with our heart in spirit and in truth.	3 Labor Day today. This is a good time to focus on how we use our time. Pray for God's direction of your priorities. Pray about other important priorities in addition to your work. Such as time with God and family.	4 Our prayers are powerful and necessary and they do protect us; our nation and church. Let us not grow weary as worldwide attacks on the church increase. Let us pray and fear not as God makes us more powerful.	5 Father, many churches and their leaders/pastors have grown weary. Send a second wind to refresh and energize. Inspire a new birthing of changed lives that will be clearly evident to all peoples in our communities.	6 Perhaps God has chosen you for some mission in life. It was clear to you but now the road has become difficult as you encounter roadblocks. Constant prayer will yield rewards. Don't give up on God!	7 Lord, fill my heart with mercy and grace. Although I may have my own troubles, yet may my heart be filled with compassion for the lonely and downtrodden. A good heart concerned for the hurting and lost souls.	8 Lord, beginning today, I will make an extra effort to give priority to prayer and Bible study. So often, I have allowed the less important things in my schedule crowd out my time with You. Help me with my priorities.
9 Father, forgive us for not always keeping the Sabbath holy; when we engage in activity that gets in the way of worshipping and serving You. Father, we invite You into our presence.	10 Pray for schools in your community. Pray for Christian teachers to have boldness to share the Gospel; for students/others to set up Bible study classes as now permitted by law.	11 Lord, You command us to not covet. May I be truly satisfied and at peace with what I have and not be driven to make possessions, things and activity my gods. May my life reflect Your value.	12 Lord, every day that I live, Your love amazes me. I am undeserving, yet You bless me. I know even now, I am on the edge of new opportunities You have prepared for me. Faith to posses them!	13 God has many good gifts He wants to give us. They are not always the things we want. Pray for discernment. Pray for the good gift of the Holy Spirit to guide you in all that you do.	14 Dear Father, give us clean and pure hearts that we may truly serve You and that our worship is acceptable to You. Continue our transformation to be more like You.	15 Pray for the newly elected leaders of the Unity of the Brethren. Seek out their names in the B.J. or from your S.C. representative. Seek out and pray for exciting things in the Unity.
16 Pray your pastor and we who worship immerse ourselves in communication with God and engage all our mind, heart and senses. Pray about how to worship in truth and spirit.	17 Lord, help us discern needs of people we disciple. Alert us to seek Your guidance about what you desire for a person's life. Let us always seek Your direction and power.	18 Pray for those you know whose marriages are experiencing challenges. Pray for love, patience, understanding and a desire for reconciliation and true growth	19 Pray for college students whose faith is being challenged by instructors with a secular worldview. Pray that the truth imparted to us in the Bible will guide and strengthen them.	20 Heb. 3:13 speaks of us encouraging one another. Lord, surely, someone will cross my path who needs encouragement. Make me sensitive to such need and how to respond.	21 Yes Lord, I believe I am Your workmanship and I yield myself to Your goodness. Cause me to be all You have in Your heart for me to be dear Jesus and I give You all the glory. Amen	22 Lord, thank You for cleansing me. When I fail, and quickly repent, the blood of Christ has washed me, purified me of sins. Strengthen me, empower me to live a life that is pure. Faithful!
23 Praise God that He renews our strength day by day. Praise God for He has transformed you. 30 Praise God that you can anchor your faith in Christ to take you thru any trouble you may face.	24 Father, we pray that You will impart vision and discernment to the leaders and pastors of our Unity (&amp; all churches). Make us sensitive to the Holy Spirit. Make us aware of Your heart for the Body of Christ.	25 Pray for friends, family members or people in your congregation who are going through difficult times. Grief, health challenges, work difficulties or relationship challenges. Pray for God's healing touch.	26 Jesus by example displayed His care for the downtrodden of the world. Pray for the weak, poor and forgotten. Pray about specific things we and our churches can do. Pray for power and hope.	27 Pray about how God can use your weakness and inadequacies to display His power. Thank God that His power and grace will always be sufficient to meet your needs. Read 2 Corinthians 12:9-10	28 Pray for God's spirit and power to spread across this land. Pray for the spirit of repentance to spread from shore to shore followed by spiritual renewal that will bring God great glory.	29 Make an effort to become informed on the needs and work of missionaries connected with the Unity. Your prayers for them and their families make a difference.
