PRAYER FOCUS Pray that God will continue to transform us and bless us as His people to strengthen the church. →	Pray that we might clearly hear and understand how God desires His church to be a blessing not only to us but to every people.	1 Jesus, we are the Church, the “outcalled ones.” Empower each of us to stand and not compromise the truth revealed to us in Your Word. Give us clear vision to discern the truth.	2 Pray for the church and its need to address the evils in America and the world. Pray that the focus of the church is drawn to become actively involved in those things Jesus focused upon.	3 Pray for the media. Pray for an abundance of committed Christian news reporters that will tell the truth. Pray for more obedient Christians to infiltrate media entertainment.	4 As we celebrate Independence Day, Lord we acknowledge it was Your hand that directed the forming of this nation and the freedom we enjoy. We thank You and pray, for continued guidance.	5 Pray for our government that we are indeed one nation, under God. Pray for more bright Christians serving in public life to change the moral compass that guides elected officials.
6 John Hus Day. Pray we may add to our worship genuine love reaching out to all people, not just believers. Beautify us with merciful eyes, servant hands, hopeful smiles & obedient feet.	7 Father, I pray for spiritual eyes to clearly see the false gods that have been created all around us. Help us & our church to rise above what evryone is doing. Help me to stand above it all.	8 Father, You command us to make every effort to add goodness to our faith. Help me display goodness that shines in a world darkened by sin. Help me keep promises, be honest, truthful, dress modestly.	9 Father, I pray for help in developing knowledge thru Your Word setting moral standards. Lord, ignorance of Scripture will make me easy prey for the spiderweb of false teaching. Guide me!	10 Lord, I pray for knowledge of Your Word and the “self control” and discipline to apply it. Help me to be careful not to gossip, harbor bitterness, watch movies insulting Your excellence.	11 Lord Jesus, one day You will review my life on earth. Help me to persevere in keeping God’s moral standards. Knowingly failing to keep Your moral standards is direct disobedience. Help!	12 Mutual Aid Conv. at Ocker Brethren. Lord, we pray Your blessing of this gathering. Empower leaders with vision and grant inspiration to perhaps discover new ways to build our Unity.
13 Lord, as we worship, replace any spirit of complacency with a revival of anticipation, expectancy & inspiration. We hunger for more of Your presence in our church, in our homes and in our lives.	14 Jesus, we pray that You inspire each of us to be keenly attuned to see people around us who need to be comforted and encouraged. Show us how to water the spirit of harmony among people around us/plant unity.	15 Lord, help us to grasp the reality of the labor of our missionaries in difficult ministries. Pray for the Woos, the Theissens, Jill, and Ray still in Honduras. Pray for their health, safe travel, vision & renewal.	16 Pray that you and all Brethren work at hiding God’s word in their heart. (see Psalm 119:11) Today, so many are biblically illiterate. Let us learn God’s Word that we can pray His promises. Pray for Bible studies.	17 Pray that Christian educators take an active role in influencing the education of our children and young people. Pray that the stronghold of evil and bias against Christianity can be broken and replaced.	18 Pray for the many needs of the families of military personnel. Pray that more and more of our military leaders will begin to seek God’s guidance & that Christianity will influence our military leaders.	19 Pray for your pastor. The demands of performing according to a role decided by others and nitpicky parishoners has burned out many a pastor. Pray your pastor finds genuine biblical community/refreshment.
20 Father, those gathered at Pentecost heard the sound of Your presence before they were empowered. We gather in worship anticipating and expecting that today, You will renew and empower us to be Your hands/feet.	21 Jesus, Your servant Paul warned us of the powers and principalities we must battle. Jesus, we put on the shield You have given us for protection. We claim the power of Your victory over them.	22 Thank God for the firm foundation He has established in you. Pray that everything about you is full of truth, bold and confident in the Lord, your maker. Pray you will stand firm and not be misled by false doctrine.	23 Lord Jesus, You bring change into our lives that is sometimes frightening. Teach me those things I don’t yet understand. I will keep my mind open, flexible but always fixed on You. Light my path to discern.	24 Jesus, remind me that life is so very precious and it passes so quickly; that what seems so important today so often has no value in Your Kingdom. Give me the wisdom to live today as if it were my last.	25 Pray Psalm 119:37 “Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word.” (N.I.V.) Take time to pray and examine your priorities and seek God’s wisdom to know if they are worthwhile.	26 Pray for the Summer B.Y.F. Retreat beginning today. Pray wisdom for counsellors that they might counteract the spirit of humanism & carnality that seeks to devour our young people.
27 Lord Jesus, we gather to praise You with one voice. We welcome You to use these times to strengthen the church to stand against persecution that may come upon us. Empower servants to purify/lead to maturity.	28 Father God, anoint the people of prayer in each Brethren church with an extra measure of Your power. Help them remove from their lives that diminishes effectiveness as prayer warriors.	29 Pray: Lord, thank You for the refreshment I receive through my daily quiet time when I find Your word is all I need. Restore our power and let us experience the fullness of joy and anointing. I hunger to know You more	30 Pray for all people who are involved in education of children and adults. Confirm their dedication, grow their compassion and open their hearts and minds to God’s truth and how to share it with others.	31 Pray for the ability to trust God and take Him at His word so that you can experience the joy of receiving the blessings He has promised you. Pray for inner contentment that comes to those who trust God.	View or download this calendar on the Unity website: unityofthebrethren.org Click on “calendar” and then “DPC”. 20 Father, those gathered at Pentecost heard the sound of Your presence before they were empowered. We gather in worship anticipating and expecting that today, You will renew and empower us to be Your hands/feet.	21 Jesus, Your servant Paul warned us of the powers and principalities we must battle. Jesus, we put on the shield You have given us for protection. We claim the power of Your victory over them.	22 Thank God for the firm foundation He has established in you. Pray that everything about you is full of truth, bold and confident in the Lord, your maker. Pray you will stand firm and not be misled by false doctrine.	23 Lord Jesus, You bring change into our lives that is sometimes frightening. Teach me those things I don’t yet understand. I will keep my mind open, flexible but always fixed on You. Light my path to discern.	24 Jesus, remind me that life is so very precious and it passes so quickly; that what seems so important today so often has no value in Your Kingdom. Give me the wisdom to live today as if it were my last.	25 Pray Psalm 119:37 “Turn my eyes away from worthless things; preserve my life according to your word.” (N.I.V.) Take time to pray and examine your priorities and seek God’s wisdom to know if they are worthwhile.	26 Pray for the Summer B.Y.F. Retreat beginning today. Pray wisdom for counsellors that they might counteract the spirit of humanism & carnality that seeks to devour our young people.
27 Lord Jesus, we gather to praise You with one voice. We welcome You to use these times to strengthen the church to stand against persecution that may come upon us. Empower servants to purify/lead to maturity.	28 Father God, anoint the people of prayer in each Brethren church with an extra measure of Your power. Help them remove from their lives any sin and all that diminishes effectiveness as prayer warriors.	29 Pray: Lord, thank You for the refreshment I receive through my daily quiet time when I find Your word is all I need. Restore our power and let us experience the fullness of joy and anointing. I hunger to know You more	30 Pray for all people who are involved in education of children and adults. Confirm their dedication, grow their compassion and open their hearts and minds to God’s truth and how to share it with others.	31 Pray for the ability to trust God and take Him at His word so that you can experience the joy of receiving the blessings He has promised you. Pray for inner contentment that comes to those who trust God.	View or download this calendar on the Unity website: unityofthebrethren.org Click on “calendar” and then “DPC”.
